Agenda Items:

- Introduction of Tewksbury Cultural Council Members present
- Overview of the grant application process and deadline
- Questions and Comments from the public
- Confirmation of the MCC local grant amount to Tewksbury for 2017
- Follow-Up on grant financials from 2016
- At the conclusion of the agenda, Christian Panasuk and Pat Stratis will be available until 11:30am to assist with any applicants who would like assistance on the public computers at the library, in order to work on the online application for grant proposals.

The press release will read: The Tewksbury Cultural Council will host an informational meeting for the community on Saturday SEP 24th, at 9:30am to 10:30am, in the large meeting room at the Tewksbury Public Library. This meeting will be open to the public. We will present the basic information about the grant funding process, timeline, and priorities of this local council. We will take input from the public on priorities for the future, and questions about the online application process for proposals. There is access to public computers at the Library, and from 10:30am to 11:30am we will offer helpful insight in the online process using the public computers if you'd like to complete the process with assistance.
