The original filing of the above-referenced campaign finance report is being amended for the following reason(s):

The campaign is not collecting monetary donations from friends, family nor residents of Tewksbury for this 2016 re-election bid. Therefore, the campaign did not set up a bank account.

The candidate and the campaign treasurer are married, they share the same personal bank account. They will personally be paying for all campaign expenses out of their private, personal bank account.

The campaign treasurer mistakenly thought that personal expenses paid by the candidate were not considered "income" or "receipts". A change has been made to "Total receipts this period" above, and also detailed on Schedule A - Receipts attached, to reflect the appropriate reporting change that they are in fact receipts.
