MOBILE MARKET PROGRAM

AgeSpan and the Greater Boston Food Bank have joined together to offer a Mobile Market Program for people aged 60 years and older and disabled adults who live in the Merrimack Valley. Participants receive a free bag of groceries once a month.

A typical grocery bag contains perishable and shelf-stable foods, including cereal, beef stew, canned tuna, pasta, pasta sauce, rice, beans, raisins, apple juice, oatmeal, produce and cheese. There is no cost involved. One bag per household.

To participate, please complete this application and return it to AgeSpan. Once your paperwork is processed, information will be mailed to you explaining how the program works and providing information on grocery bag pick up.

Each participant must fill out an application and return it to AgeSpan.

To register, please return this application to:
